14. The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.
15. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
16. The defendant shall be placed on home detention for a period of 6 months. To commence immediately following release from imprisonment. During the period of home detention, the defendant shall remain at his place of residence except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court ordered obligations; or other activities approved in advance by the probation officer. At the direction to the probation officer, the defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Department.
17. The defendant is to pay the cost of the electronic monitoring portion of this sentence not to exceed the daily contractual rate. Payment for the electronic monitoring shall be made in accordance with the probation officer subject to supervisory approval.
18. The defendant shall participate in a mental health assessment and/or treatment program approved by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Court. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services in an amount determined by the Probation Office. These costs shall not exceed the actual cost of the service. The Probation Office is authorized to release the defendant's presentence report to the treatment provider if so requested.
19. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
20. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, business or place of employment, to a search, conducted by a United States probation/pretrial services officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
21. The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
22. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
23. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
24. The defendant shall pay restitution that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release at a rate of not less than 10 percent of his gross monthly earnings. The first payment shall be due within 30 days of the defendant's release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
25. The defendant shall report any change of address within 30 days to the United States Attorney's Office while any portion of the restitution remains outstanding.
